

About Customer

FlexxCOACH provides eLearning and distance learning solution for sports. This innovative solution has been developed to coach the coaches through internet and computer based training and other advanced web based techniques. This solution combine latest web based training techniques with latest and leading edge multimedia, customized eLearning solution works for sports governing bodies offering coaching, officiating; volunteer administrator and parent education programs. Coaches who want to professionally publish their drill ideas use software tools from flexxCOACH

Business Challenge

flexxCOACH Drill Designer allows Hockey Coaches to display existing plays, create new ones and save them. Coaches are always on the go, and during game and practice situations it is necessary to quickly diagram plays. The PC based Drill Designer product delivers elegant technology for displaying and creating plays but due to the PC platform it could not be easily used ice side, at practices or during games.

Technology Used

Apple iPad, iPad framework

Solution Delivered

Everyone one wants mobility and moving the PC based Drill Designer application to the iPad was the ticket. Coaches can easily display existing plays, create new ones and save them and leverage the iPad for quick huddles with their players. Zeon Solutions developed the flexxCOACH sportBOARD. The iPad application can be downloaded from iTunes App Store.

Results and Value Adds:

Zeon Solutions developed the Hockey sportBOARD application on the iPad with a framework suitable to be extended easily to other sports. The application will help the Hockey Coach to design their game plans in both half sized and full sized rinks. Seamless layered design has improved the drawing performance to its maximum capacity. flexxCOACH sportBOARD is being used by Hockey coaches today to win games!

Client Testimonial

“Zeon was instrumental in helping us to bring our vision to market. The rapid Proto-Typing tools and collaboration at the beginning of the project set the tone. Zeon helped us address some technical hurdles within the mobile platform. Great job by the Zeon Team, we will definitely look to Zeon again , they brought innovation to the software development process—plus they delivered!
